The shopping and entertainment centre Aupark, which is being built on the area of 10 280 m² in the centre of Piešťany at the price of more than 26 million Euro, should welcome the first customers in the spring of 2010. According to the spokesman of HB Reavis Slovakia, R. Karabelli, escalators were installed in August and both floors got a paving from natural stone. "In the coming days we are going to install a facade, what includes installation of aluminium glazed structures, cladding a façade and insulation elements. We have started assembly of air-equipments, "said Karabelli.
