

B. Bystrica: the district non-profit organization for construction of apartments was again disapproved

Author: SITA - Slovak News Agency | Published: 13.10.2009

Establishing a new non-profit organization Nové bývanie (New Housing), through which Banská Bystrica district ought to build rental apartments, failed to obtain enough support of county members neither at the second attempt. In their view it is more a developer business with lands. The self-administration will not build apartments for the time being. According to current the proposal of the deputy its contribution to the new non-profit organization should be lands at B. Bystrica, B. Štiavnica, Lučenec and R. Sobota. In the apartments should be a rent under the market price.

13.10.2009 10:09, SITA - Slovak News Agency