Jan Doksanský (aged 54) became the new financial director of the local property network RE/MAX. Doksanský is coming from the company Bellinda where he focused on restructuring the group of companies in the Central-European region. He worked for RE/MAX during the years 2007 and 2008, he participated in finetuning financial and operational processes within the company. Similarly to David Krajný, founder of the local RE/MAX network, Doksanský previously worked with the chewing-gum producer Wrigley where he focused on the expansion of the concern in Central and Eastern Europe.

RE/MAX has 155 offices in various stages of opening in the Czech Republic, around 1200 brokers work there.
