

M. Stieber: from CzechInvest to Colliers

Author: SF / pb | Published: 27.07.2010

Michal Stieber is joining the industrial real estate department of Colliers International on the position of senior broker from mid-July. He is coming from the state agency CzechInvest where he worked for three and a half years. Michal Stieber's main task will be to provide consulting to foreign production companies, mainly from automobile industry, consumer electronics and light production sectors. Stieber graduated from Faculty of Economics and Public Administration at University of Economics in Prague and he worked for Nestlé Česko during his studies. He is currently studying an MBA programme at an American university - Chapman University. He is single and apart from Czech he speaks English and German. His hobbies include economics, new information technology and sport.

27.07.2010 09:40, SF / pb