The real estate office AAABYTY.CZ has new director of their branch network - Jiří Eliáš. He joins the position from the post of sales manager at the international investment and property developer company Ballymore Properties. Thirty-three-year-old Jiří Eliáš graduated from Faculty of Economics at VŠB-Technical University in Ostrava, as well as from Kingsley High School in Michigan. Before joining AAABYTY.CZ, he worked as branch manager in the international real estate company Real-Treuhand Reality. Jiří Eliáš replaced Martin Ďuriš, who had worked at the post since April 2008. He also worked for the real estate company Mentis in the past, where he started in the position of real estate broker and worked his way up to company management. Jiří Eliáš is married. His main hobbies include sport, especially skiing and softtennis.
