

PM Group enters the Czech & Slovak markets

Author: SF / zs | Published: 08.11.2010

International engineering, architecture and project management company, PM Group has opened new offices in Prague and Bratislava. The opening of the Czech and Slovak offices is part of the Group's expansion plans, which saw the recent establishment of operations in Belgium, Sweden, India and the US. PM Group already operates from a network of 21 offices globally.

PM have opened offices in Prague and Bratislava and have recruited a highly professional team to run those offices. Roman Zámečník has been appointed as the General Director for the Czech & Slovak Republics and Petr Strejček and Jan Záhorský have been appointed as Operation Directors for Czech Republic and Slovakia respectively. Marta Rumplíková joins the company as Business Development Director. All four directors join us from the international company Bovis Lend Lease and put PM Group on an excellent footing to execute significant projects locally. The units will report into the Regional Director Con Murphy.
