

Říčany: new shopping centre in distillery

Author: ČTK - Czech News Agency | Published: 09.11.2010

A new shopping centre is under construction on the premises of a former distillery in Říčany near Prague; it will offer 3.389 sqm for shops, restaurants and offices. Warehouses will be built in a separate part and a farmers' market will be on the premises. Costs are estimated at CZK 150 mill., said Jan Drbohlav from Titan Real Invest - owner of the premises. Opening of the complex is planned for 11th November next year.

---

09.11.2010 12:26, ČTK - Czech News Agency