

N. Frouzová and J. Kotaška strengthening JLLS team

Author: SF / pb | Published: 15.02.2011

Nika Frouzová (28) has been appointed as new PR and marketing manager at Jones Lang LaSalle Czech Republic. Before joining JLLS she worked for PR agency Grayling, after leaving she participated in event organization for fashion, design and automobile companies. Nika studied Comparative Law Studies at Anglo-American University in Prague and completed her education in the Netherlands with LLM degree. She speaks English, German and Macedonian. Her hobbies are mainly design, fashion and photography.

Jan Kotaška (29) is also strengthening Czech Jones Lang LaSalle team at the position of senior property manager in the property management department. He has four years experience in various types of property management. He started his career at PSG International, he later worked for CTP and Knight Frank where he provided comprehensive services to clients such as INVESCO Real Estate, DEKA Immobilien and Czech Property Investments. Jan graduated from Brno University of Technology, specializing in building construction. The study programme was conducted in English, he improved his English further in language courses in Australia. He completed this two-year experience by obtaining a Cambridge language certificate. Jan's hobbies include sailing and surfing.

15.02.2011 09:42, SF / pb