

New partner and attorney at bnt law office

Author: SF / pb | Published: 17.05.2011

Jan Šafránek has been promoted to new partner of law office bnt - pravda & partner where he worked as attorney -at-law for several years. Jan Šafránek graduated from Charles University in Prague. Even during his studies, he worked for a law firm which he joined upon completion of his studies as trainee lawyer specializing in corporate law. In addition to corporate law, he has specialized in complex transformation projects and holding law since 2005. He has been practising law as attorney since 2006. Jan Šafránek is a Czech native speaker, he can also speak German.

Libor Ulovec is another addition to bnt - pravda & parter team as of May. He graduated from Charles university Faculty of Law in Prague. In 2001 he became attorney-at-law. He specializes in commercial and corporate law, real estate law and electronic communications law as well as administrative proceedings and litigation. His spare time is devoted to his family, amateur theatre, swimming and hiking. His hobbies also include classical music and learning foreign languages.

17.05.2011 09:50, SF / pb