

Hochtief Development has new confidential clerk

Author: SF / pb | Published: 31.01.2012

Jakub Mikulášek was appointed as new confidential clerk of Hochtief Development Czech Republic. He has been working in the company since 2007 - as project manager for Trianon office building and the residential project Park Kavčí Hory in Prague 4. He is currently responsible for the Office Island project. Jakub graduated from University of Economics in Prague and was awarded CEMS Master in International Management. He previously worked as Executive Director at the Investment and Business Development Agency CzechInvest. He managed CzechInvest agency in Paris in 2004-2006. Jakub Mikulášek speaks English, Spanish, German and French.

31.01.2012 09:57, SF / pb