

Bratislava: Karlova Ves gave “green” to the building-up of the new shipyard

Author: SITA - Slovak News Agency | Published: 17.02.2009

Karlova Ves in Bratislava gave “green” to the building-up of the new shipyard in Karloveska zátoka (cove). J&T Company ought to build-up it together with the relax-rest structure. The modern shipyard with playgrounds and treated surrounding would grow-up on the place of the current one till October next year at price of 838 thousand Euro. The new shipyard will belong to the municipal district; sportsmen would utilize it and wide public as well. The original project counted on 3 aboveground floors, but they will be only 2 finally. The storage of ships will be on the ground floor; offices and the shipyard background will be on the first floor. Accommodation for sportsmen, who come for various competitions here, on the third floor, is postponed in the meantime. „Hard proceedings passes, we were successful in changing many things,“ Martin Berta, the deputy of the municipal district, told.

17.02.2009 09:49, SITA - Slovak News Agency