

They want to build-up the restaurant on the top of Nová hoľa

Author: SITA - Slovak News Agency | Published: 07.04.2009

Goimpex Bratislava, the operator of the Ski Centrum Park Snow Donovaly, plans to build-up the restaurant with all-year operation on the top station of the chair lift at Nová hoľa. As specified in the intention, which the firm submitted for appraisal of influences to environment, the restaurant in the above-sea height of 1356.5 m ought to be one-storied object with opened terrace on the roof. Its capacity in the interior including the bar will be 54 chairs, other 160 chairs on the terraces. It should serve for refreshing and rest as well as social-hygienic background of skiers and visitors of the top part of the Nová hoľa area. Beginning, finish and putting the restaurant into service are planned next year. The planner estimated costs for its building-up for about 1 million Euro. The counterpart of the intention is the building-up of engineering networks as well.

---

07.04.2009 08:00, SITA - Slovak News Agency