

Muehlbauer is going to put the Nitra technological centre into service

Author: SITA - Slovak News Agency | Published: 21.04.2009

Germany Muehlbauer Technologies, s.r.o. Company is going to put the technological centre in the industrial centre Nitra - South into service in May. The total investment ought to achieve 13.27 millions Euro. The company plans to employ together 600 people in three phases, 50-60 with university education hereof. Muehlbauer Technologies will be developing the software and prototypes of machines in the Nitra municipal district - Dolné Krškany based on particular job orders of firms from all over the world.

The group of Mühlbauer factories is the world technological concern in the area of technologically innovative safety solutions manufacture. In addition it develops and manufactures innovative technological solutions in the area of semiconductors industry, marking systems for searching electronically constructional elements and highly precise elements for sensitive safety-technical branches like cosmic and aircraft industries, motor industry and medicine techniques.

21.04.2009 08:00, SITA - Slovak News Agency