

Ďurkovský wants to discuss about PKO redeem with the investor

Author: SITA - Slovak News Agency | Published: 28.04.2009

Andrej Ďurkovský, the capital major, intends to discuss with the investor Henbury Development, s.r.o about future and redeem of lands under the Park of Culture and Rest (PKO) on the Danube River bank in Bratislava this or next week eventually yet. „It will be bipartite discussions. I want to invite representatives of protectionist associations to the side of the capital “the major told and pointed out that the unambiguous intention is to redeem the lands under PKO, about which will also be discussed at the meeting of the municipal office. New spaces for PKO are not considered till now, as he told, it will depend on the statement of the investor.

The investment company Henbury Development, s.r.o. started-up demolishing works at PKO last Tuesday, which it stopped after the prolongation of the permission for demolish till the end of year 2011. The original permission issued by the Old City building office, had validity till Sunday on April 19.

28.04.2009 09:03, SITA - Slovak News Agency