

Plus X Award for Kettler furniture

Author: SF / pb | Published: 30.06.2009

The sixth year of the European competition Plus X Award which awards the most quality products, innovation technologies and trade marks is success for producers of garden furniture and sports equipment of the company Kettler. It received awards for 14 of its products, none of participants in the competition during the history has had such achievement. Together more than 260 products were awarded the prize Plus X Award in together 13 categories: from innovative flat screens, digital cameras of a new generation or multifunctional multimedial mobile telephones through environmental friendly, fully automatic washing machines to functional sports closing.

---

30.06.2009 10:01, SF / pb