A new shopping boulevard and entertainment and leisure centre will be added to the left bank of the river Danube in Bratislava. Ballymore Properties is opening the shopping zone Eurovea Galleria as another building in the 350-million Eurovea complex. The first one was the five-star hotel Sheraton Bratislava opened a month ago. A part of the shopping zone with 2 300 triangle-shaped roof windows will not only be commercial space for many well-known fashion brands but also for restaurants or fast food outlets. Opening of a two-hectare park on the quay extending from Starý most (Old bridge) to the reconstructed former Admiralty building with a river waterfront and three observation piers from exotic wood with benches is planned for 24th April.
