The Spanish hotel chain NH Hoteles is entering the Czech market by opening NH Praha Radlická hotel and another hotel in Olomouc. The new four-star hotel is located in Prague's Smíchov. It offers 134 rooms and 3 junior suites with terrace. NH Hoteles is the third largest operator of so called business hotels in Europe. The chain currently operates 398 hotels with 60 605 beds in 25 countries in Europe, America and Africa. The company currently has 39 new projects under construction which will offer more than seven thousand rooms.
